Affidavit Of Good Moral Character

As a volunteer for Tri-State Camp, I attest that I am of good moral character, that I have not been found guilty of, regardless of adjudication, or entered a plea of nolo contendere, or guilty to any offense prohibited under the law.

Please initial each statement to indicate your agreement:

_____ I believe the fullest, richest life comes to me as I follow the lordship of Jesus Christ and that God is leading me to serve Him through Tri-State Camp and will seek to do so with a heart committed to God.

_____ I am able to whole-heartedly volunteer at Tri-State Camp without discussing my denominational views with campers or other staff.

_____ I recognize that human rules and human leadership, imperfect though they may be, are necessary to maintain order and I submit myself to the Tri-State Camp leadership over me. Should a disagreement arise, I agree to talk the problem through with those in authority and no others.

_____ I recognize that Tri-State Camp must reserve the right to dismiss any volunteer who is considered not to be meeting his/her responsibilities satisfactorily, whose lifestyle no longer represents the teachings of the Bible or Tri-State Camp or whose further participation is deemed unhelpful for any reason.

_____ I acknowledge that the Tri-State Camp Intern Program is not a vacation or retreat - that my comfort and satisfaction are secondary to that of the campers and staff

_____ I agree to be a model for campers in following the rules and setting a positive tone.

_____ I understand that my participation in the Intern Program does not guarantee my acceptance as a full staff member in the future.

_____ I recognize that as a participant in the Intern Program I may encounter a thousand inconveniences which I will bear with a smile realizing that the spiritual, physical and emotional well-being of campers is the number one concern.

RELEASE

The information contained in this Form is correct to the best of my ability and knowledge. I hereby request and authorize any law enforcement agency, institution, school, employer, insurance company, church or reference to release any information which pertains to my character, work performance, or any court or police record that may have a bearing on my position of working with campers through Tri-State Camp. I hereby release Tri-State Camp and any other individual, group or organization, individually and collectively, from any and all liability resulting from such disclosure. I waive any right I may have to inspect any information provided about me by any person or organization identified by me on this Form. I understand any photograph/video of workers and campers individually or in a group while at a Camp activity shall become the absolute property of Tri-State Camp for its use. Any claims for damages or compensation for their use is hereby waived.

I understand that this is not an application for employment. I have read and agree with the Doctrinal Statement on page 6. I have carefully read the foregoing release and understand the contents thereof, and I sign this release of my own free will.

TRI-STATE CAMP

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

- We believe the Bible to be the inspired, the only infallible, authoritative Word of God.
- We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
- We believe in the deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, in the conception of His body by the Holy Spirit and His birth by the virgin Mary, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return in power and glory.
- We believe that salvation is wholly of grace, but conditioned solely on repentance toward God and acceptance of Christ by faith. When the sinner has met these requirements, God justifies and regenerates him. Justification is a judicial act absolving from punishment and restoring to divine favor. Regeneration is the impartation of divine life effecting a change in the believer's nature. By the operation of the Holy Spirit through the Word he is given a disposition to obey God. This experience is witnessed to by the Holy Spirit.
- We believe in the power and presence of the Holy Spirit, that He personally dwells within and guides those who are true believers, and empowers them for service, giving to them various gifts and producing within their lives the fruits of Christian Character. We believe that all believers the moment they are regenerated are simultaneously baptized by the Holy Spirit into Christ and also at that moment He comes to dwell within the believer. The filling of the Holy Spirit should be a continuous and repeated action.
- Sanctification is that work of grace begun by the Holy Spirit at the moment of regeneration and continues progressively until physical death. We believe the old nature is not eradicated until after death, but that we must constantly guard against its influence in our lives.
- We believe that at the return of the Lord, the bodies of the righteous dead will be raised and the living believers will be changed so that both will have literal, spiritual, and immortal bodies like unto Christ's own glorious body.
- We believe that man was created by God and not by any accidental or spontaneous or self-propagated occurrence, action, method, or process; that he was created in the image and likeness of God, possessing personality and holiness, and that he is a free moral agent possessing the power of choice, and that the purpose of his creation was to glorify God. We believe the Biblical teaching about the fall of man and that because of his fall, death passed upon all men and sin entered into the world therefore, condemnation rests upon each person who has reached the age and development with which comes account-ability before God and he is forever lost, except he be born again.
- We believe in the oneness of the church of Christ, composed of all Spirit-regenerated believers, and that these believers both living and dead, shall be caught up together at His Second Coming.
